

Privacy Policy

This web site is an important tool in the pursuit of our mission to improve the quality of life of our community, and enhance educational, economic, health awareness for African Americans. We have adopted the following privacy policy to make it safe and easy for you to use our website.

We collect individual information about you when you choose to share information about yourself, for example, when you make a donation, purchase tickets or request information. This information may include your postal and/or e-mail address, and your phone number.

Individual Information

Individual information is used to provide you with information or service requested. If you provide your postal, email address, or phone number you may receive any of the following from 100 Black Men of Greater Detroit, Inc:

- Mailings with information about additional 100 Black Men of Greater Detroit, Inc. programs, services and events
- Mailings that invite you to contribute to 100 Black Men of Greater Detroit, Inc., and its mission
- E-mail contact to respond to your questions, comments, or suggestions

Sharing Information

The 100 Black Men of Greater Detroit, Inc. will not share your personal information with other organizations, individuals or businesses. We will share personal information only when we believe release is appropriate to comply with the law, enforce our rights, or protect the safety of our users or others.

Email Communications

We may occasionally send out an email newsletter and direct mail communications to highlight news, information and opportunities available from the 100 Black Men of Greater Detroit, Inc. You may elect not to have us contact you by sending an email to info@100blackmendetrait.org with option out in the subject.

Security

In order to prevent unauthorized access and protect our users' personal information, we strive to maintain physical, electronic and administrative safeguards to secure the information we collect online.

Privacy Policy Changes

If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes here. We encourage you to review our policy from time to time.

Questions or Concerns

If you have any questions or concerns, please send an email to info@100blackmendetroit.org.